THE EFFECT OF THIS DECISION

This decision is final and binding unless it is set aside by the Supreme Court, or the order is corrected, revoked or varied under the provisions of s. 119 or 120 of the VCAT Act 1998.

In coming to its decision the Tribunal has made a finding on the issues before it. It has no power to review or reconsider or alter this finding once the decision is published. Therefore, it is inappropriate for the Tribunal to enter into correspondence with parties as to the issues presented before it and the merits of the decision.

Should you wish to challenge the decision, you should consider obtaining legal advice as to your rights in the circumstances. This should be done promptly as an appeal to the Supreme Court must be lodged within 28 days of this decision. The Tribunal is unable to enter into correspondence in relation to issues or evidence subject of this decision.

PLEASE NOTE

Most Planning & Environment List decisions are also available via our website (www.vcat.vic.gov.au) which has a link to take you to the Australasian Legal Information Institute's website (AustLII) where records of the decisions are stored and may be accessed.

Decisions should appear on AustLII within 14 days after the decision is posted. We suggest you use the Recent Updates List function on AustLII to find recently released cases.
