to give up the idea of having the Quarry in the area. We already have one quarry in Beveridge and everyone suffered and constantly complain about it. Residents and all the students in the nearby schools are suffering. The last thing we need is another Quarry and that will not only affect Beveridge but also Wallan.
All affected stakeholders had spoken once so the project already got rejected. Why DJPR choose to ignore it.
I can see the plan is to develop the area into a residential town, a place people would like to live. By putting a quarry there, it's like creating a new baby with cancer already implanted.
Hope DJPR can put themselves into the shoe and hear the people say.
