To the VPA,

I have no objections to the existing proposed development of Craigieburn West. However, I am not keen on part of the vision to "transition between the residential neighbourhood and the rural land west of Mickleham Road." One of the reasons I chose to move to this area is the drive. I drive from Aston to Footscray for work. I take the scenic route via Craigieburn Rd to Oaklands Rd. This drive contributes greatly to my mental health. I enjoy the seasonal blooms of the canola fields, seeing the alpacas and rural appeal of the area. It gives me a great start for the day and refreshes me at the end of it. I may be reading this wrong but I hope this vision does not include creating more residential and commercial areas west of Mickleham Rd.
