As a resident of the Darebin council area, this is my local market. We cannot continue to demolish community spaces like these- every week, this market provides affordable groceries for low income families and supports small businesses that have been instrumental in the servicing of Preston and it's surrounds for years. The demolishing (80%) to accommodate for housing is simply irresponsible and doesn't take into consideration the livelihoods of the stall holders, shoppers and thriving culture that the market affords.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.
