To whom it may concern,

The Preston market is one of the most important cultural epicentres of Melbourne's north. To proceed with the proposed plans would be an abhorrent act of racism directed at the Asian and other migrant communities that have a strong base in the market. Even as a white Anglo Saxon male, it is incredibly obvious that these plans are an effort to further gentrify the market area and push out migrant communities in the high st Preston area. This is only one of many points I could make that point out the negative aspects of building a high rise apartment building in the area.
