The Preston market is a Melbourne institution and more importantly a very key part of one of the cities most multicultural suburbs identity. It is and has been a great place for the many different ethnicities and cultures of the northern suburbs to meet and blend and letting it go for another unnecessary housing development would be a tragic loss for a proud part of this city.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.

Yes

I agree to the Collection Notice

Yes
