Hi there,

I am a regular shopper at the Preston Market and have been for many years. The special thing about Preston Market is it's unique offering of butchers, fresh food, bakeries, deli's etc all in one place and access to car parking which is absolutely imperative.

These new development plans will strip Preston Market of its character and also usability for people in the immediate area and beyond. To reduce its size to the proposed plan is appalling as well as the near destruction of the car park.

Building up to 20 stores, 14, 16, level apartments is utterly awful. It will change the amenity of the area and make it undesirable to attend.

There are very few markets in Victoria and destroying the few we have left is despicable.

The plans talk to need for housing but apartments are most undesirable. The ideas in this plan will create a modern type of slum. They bring no character, warmth. People don't want to live in high density living, particularly in the suburbs. There is no room for families, and forget about having more than 1 child in places like this! These types of developments are often cheaply built by developers that don't care about the longevity of the build or the welfare of people living in them. I worry about future residents of these dwellings if it were to proceed.

These plans will ruin the market we all know and love.

Agree it could use a revamp, but this monstrosity of a plan is definitely the wrong way to go about it.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.
