Dear Sir

I wish to vehemently object to the current plan for the marked redevelopment. The propose heights are obscene and will not fit in to the local vista at all, I think this has been completely forgotten. This is Preston , not New York. I am a resident of 40 years live within a Kilometre of the market, I do not want to see local high rise buildings from my back garden. Also the recently constructed residential apartments will lose their southern views and the housing to the west of the development will lose all its morning sun.

Also they have not considered - 2200 extra dwellings!! that 2200 to 4400 extra cars that will clog and pollute the streets. Rush hour at high street/st Georges road will be a nightmare.

I am sorry but it all smacks of development firms trying to cash in on a local Icon with no consideration of the local residents. Despite the claimed consultation, this publication is the first serious proposal I have heard about,

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.
