Whilst I wholeheartedly agree with the need to refresh the Preston market's structure and acknowledge the current pedestrian walkways do not flow well, I believe the proposed apartment buildings are excessive in their size. A 12 story building is already 4 stories higher than then next largest apartment building in the immediate area, let alone a 20 story building.

I don't disagree with the concept of incorporating apartment buildings into the new design but they need to be an appropriate size for the area. I believe the overshadowing and aesthetically inconsistent nature of the new building designs should be reassessed.

Finally, none of the artist's impressions really appear to reflect the proposed height of the apartment buildings. These impressions look great, but the buildings only appear to be 4 to 8 stories tall.

Thank you for your time,
