Hi, I am a local resident and live in the apartments on [REDACTED] Clinch avenue.

My concern is the high-rise tower proposal for 20 stories is too high and in my opinion, does not match the area and will stand out.

In the immediate area, there are no buildings higher than about 7-10 stories.

I had a look around to find an equivalent-sized apartment block and had a look at the Life at Pentridge in Coburg and after seeing that I definitely think having a 20 story apartment block on Murry Road is too high.

In my opinion, around 10 stories seem suitable for the location.

PS, the overall plans look great but I think the structures are too high.

Cheers,
