To whom it may concern,

My biggest concern with the Preston market plan is that although it looks great, the current shops would no longer be able to afford to stay there. High St is renowned for it's delicious array of diverse cuisine. It's why we live here! Becoming gentrified risks losing it's soul, only accommodating high end or chain restaurants. The huge high street dollar store is another reason we come to these shops! Please make sure these businesses are kept safe and alive along with the spirit of Preston.
