The proposed retention basin is planned to be another sports oval.

This seems very short-sighted in providing recreation for a minority group, co-opting all the valuable space for a small user group, which can use the north Melbourne ground.

How are other genders, user groups, cultural groups, informal recreation users, etc been catered for?

The land-hungry recreation use for Aussie Rules is already catered for. Earlier this was planned to be a wetland and would be a far better outcome than another football oval.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.

Yes

I agree to the Collection Notice
