Hi,

I am pleased to see the structure plan has now incorporated more appreciation of the presence of the North Melbourne Football Club (NMFC) in the precinct. I think the NMFC is a valuable asset to the Arden precinct, because of all the positive work the club has been doing in the local community, for many years. Including :

- For many years now, the club has been able to run profitably, but it is not involved in pokies. The NMFC does not contribute to the social problems, pokies have caused in other parts of the city.
- For years now, the NMFC, through the Huddle, has supported the youth in North Melbourne and surrounding suburbs, by offering a variety of educational, youth employment and sporting programs.

I think we have a chance to make the Arden precinct, a special place in our city. And for the reasons mentioned above, I hope the future plans support the NMFC, because for over 100 years, the club has been an important part of the North Melbourne community.

Regards,

Vito
