I have followed your plans for the Arden redevelopment closely and in general support the aims and vision that is shown in the plans.

I believe the jewel in the precinct is the North Melbourne football club and the outlined changes don't necessarily take advantage of that. They also run the risk of surrounding the current oval and preventing expansion into the future.

I don't believe there has been enough green space allocated to cater for the expanded community. While the multi use oval/flood catchment is great I think an extra football oval should be placed in the area of the current Blackwoods timber yard. This would ensure the club could remain in the area and provide more room for the community.

The growth of the AFLW and the VFL with games at Arden St has been fantastic and brings lots of people into the area. This will only help support new businesses in the new development, and retains the existing character and links to the past.

I like the idea of an indigenous cultural centre and think you could expand it into a local museum or some place that celebrates all the history of the area.
