I have lived in Wallan for 28years and the beverage quarry been there and we have never had a problem I have travelled the hole coast of Australia and there is alot of towns that have them and towns that have been been built with the money it brought to the area.

I think there will be more jobs for our residents of our district.

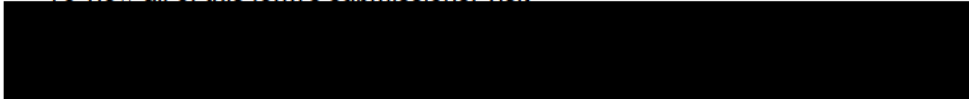

I have been in the epping quarry and it's well ran.

I look forward to more happing to our slow moving town as soon as there is change here to meny people have a problem with that.

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.
