The quarry proposal needs to be denied again. It has twice been refused by council. The only person who wants it is the rich bloke that lives in Whittlesea. Not effect by his own hole in the ground that will destroy Wallan. There are so many things wrong with this proposal, safety being the first. The proximity to residents and the dangerous dusts that are emitted is reason alone to deny this proposal. In other areas of Quarry works house prices have been reduced by up to 7% will the rich bloke in Whittlesea foot that bill? The road is already a nightmare both with traffic and the condition of the road. Put another 100 trucks a day through there and it's an absolute nightmare. They've stated they'll create jobs yet even their own estimates say it may be 15 jobs in 30 years. None of which will be locals. Literally nobody else wants this thing except the two rich blokes who don't live in the town. I know how these things go the rich get what they want while everybody else suffers but thought I'd make a submission. Please, for the third time knock this proposal back and show you care more about the residents of Wallan than the rich out of towners.

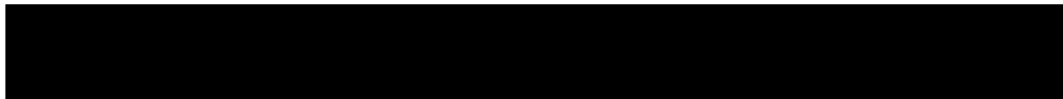

I confirm that I have read and agree to the above conditions for making a submission.
