To whom it may concern,

My husband and I have lived in Wallan for 8 years now, and have started our family here.

If the Quarry were to go ahead we would look at not only unenrolling our son from the daycare he attends, the daycare directly down wind from the Quarry location, but we would also look at selling our home and moving away from the area.

This would mean less support for the business owners around Wallan as we do shop local.

I cannot begin to understand how this is being considered when there are obviously so many more issues this will create for the local residents, people that travel to the area for work, future land owners as the area is in the growth corridor, and anyone coming to Wallan as a gateway to other areas in the state.

There would have to be more suitable areas that will not have this much of an impact on the community. Obviously this is purely a financial gain by the owner.

Please make the right decision.

Thanks,

Katherine McLarty
