Hi Sarah.

Got your email address off planning brochure.

I live at xxxx.

With the recent roadworks in officer some mental giant in planning has not made a right turn into vita lane officer.

Many of us in the row of townhouses have had to resort to driving over the medium strip to get into our street. Never have I seen that you need to drive 100 metres up the road to do a safe u turn to access the street. Can you please look into this as many I have talked to in the street are pissed off about it. I can be contacted on this email address or x. Thanks
