1163348	This set of documents is very disappointing in terms of the level of detail of and commitment to substantially improved urban development compared to what happens now. There is nothing in the plan for information to commit to all the current high level objectives by the state to better designed higher density development. Very disappointing to me as a retired urban designer who has seen Shepparton developed so poorly since the 1990's. I also lack any confidence in the consultation process and its likely outcomes. There is too little available information to make informed		Bruce Ehberg				6th March 2024
