

While I'm all for progress I do have concerns about the lack of infrastructure in regards to primary schools, kindergartens, high schools and education opportunities for the amount of dwellings that are proposed in this development. Also working at the Hospital I see how much the strain is now and fear that the new hospital will still be filled to capacity without this new development even in progress. I truly hope that further plans for more garden spaces, playgrounds and recreational facilities are included also.